3&2 Baseball is again providing a FREE coaches clinic just in time for the start of the 2012 baseball season. Area high school coaches will be on hand presenting many tips and drills on how to teach baseball to youth baseball players. All coaches and parents are welcome to attend.

It is recommended to bring more than one coach to this event so that information can be gathered during concurrent sessions.

Nill Bros Sports will have several of their feature vendors showing the latest in baseball equipment and uniforms. There will also be several door prizes given out during the day.

3&2 will be giving away two paid entries into 3&2 tournaments as door prizes.
Must be present to win.

Each year, more than 250 coaches attend this very popular clinic.

Schedule of speakers and topics TBD.
